1827, and from that time up to the period of 1858, and also his absence from our Masonic assemblies for a period of upwards of twenty years, connected with the circumstances of his letters to the celebrated William L. Stone, as an antimason, published in the New York edition is 1832, and his own assertions to different members of the order during that time, which facis were made known to the so called Grand Lodge, by a solemn protest previous to his installation, signed by a number of present and past grand officers—wo view this act, and in fact most of their acts during the last two years in the manner they have disbursed the sum of $23.000, received from lodges under its jurisdiction, out of which the meagre sum of $1.400 has been applied to the relief of the distressed brethren their widows and orphans, as not only unmasonic, but a descration of the sacred altar of masonry, a violation of all masonic law, and an insult to the whole masonic family.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the officers and members of Keystone Lodge No. 235. do hereby renounce all alleaiance to this so-called Grand Lodge, and that our Worshipful Master be directed forthwith to return the warrant and a copy of these proceedings to the Grand Secretary of
